CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued honoring our Nation's small business concerns.

Whereas there are approximately 25,000,000 small business concerns in the United States;

Whereas our Nation's small business concerns bring new services and products to the marketplace and provide business ownership opportunities to diverse and traditionally underrepresented groups;

Whereas, according to statistics of the Small Business Administration, 2 out of every 3 new jobs in the United States are created by small business concerns;

Whereas small business concerns employ 54 percent of the national work force and constitute over 99 percent of the Nation's employers;

Whereas small business concerns are the source of more than ½ of our Nation's technological innovations;

Whereas small business concerns generate an estimated 39 to 55 percent of the Nation's gross national product; and

Whereas 51 percent of the private sector output and 96 percent of all exports from the United States are attributable to small business concerns: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2        concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—

3                (1) a commemorative postage stamp should be
4                issued by the United States Postal Service honoring
5                our Nation's small business concerns; and

6                (2) the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee
7                should recommend to the Postmaster General that 8                such a stamp be issued.
